Sir,

I have the honor to enclose herein for favour of information a copy of the report of the cattle show held at Ramanathapur, Arkalgud Taluk on 3rd, 4th and 5th December 1924, in connection with the Sri Subrahmanyaswami Jatra, together with a copy of the speech made by Mr. Subbannaiah, of Nidatha who presided at the show.

2. I must add that the Taluk Board President Mr. Abdul Khadar Khan, spared no pains to make the function a success and the arrangements made by him were all that could be done under the circumstances.

3. I must also add that the following non-official gentlemen Messrs. Shamachar, Village Panchayet Chairman, Ramanathapur, Mattigode Narasimhasastri, District Board Member, and A. P. Nagasesha Pandit (the Vice President of the Taluk Board) took part in and exerted not a little for the success of the show. Mr. Shamachar's endeavours deserve special mention.

NOTE—Contn. Sheet

A brief report of the cattle show held at Ramanathapur on the 3rd 4th & 5th December 1924 in connection with the Sri Subrahmanya Swami Jatra.

The 1[illegible]th annual cattle show at Ramanathapur was held from the 3rd to the 5th December 1924, in the grounds adjoining the Ramanathapur channel and on either side of the road leading from Ramanathapur to Basavapatna and Saligrama.

This show had its origin in November 1911, when Mr. . . . . [illegible] was the Deputy Commissioner of this District and is of late being conducted by the Taluk Board under the auspices of the District Board. Fees are levied on cattle that assemble and shops that are held during the show and the right of collecting manure is also sold by public auction. This year the realizations from these sources were Rs [illegible] to Rs [illegible] and Rs 42 respectively, the total being Rs 727 as compared with Rs 634 on the last occasion. Out of the realisations certain sums are being apportioned by the District Board every year for awarding prizes to the best cattle, for constructing pandals and sheds, required for the occasion, for sanitary purposes and for other contingencies. This year the District Board were kind enough to sanction an additional sum of Rs 35 for appointing men to guard against pollution of the river water which is the main and only source of water supply. The total expenditure this year comes to Rs 294/[illegible]/- and has exceeded by Rs 1[illegible]/[illegible]/-, the sum allotted i.e., Rs 275. The reason for excess is that every year a sum of Rs 50 was being sanctioned for pendals and sheds and the amount sanctioned this year was only Rs 20 when the expenditure incurred under this head remained the same i.e., Rs 50. A group photo was also arranged and taken this year at a cost of Rs 2[illegible]. A detailed statement of expenditure is attached for kind perusal.

A staff of 1[illegible] sweepers, one scavenger and two [illegible] [illegible] to supervise them, was appointed [illegible] Amildar, [illegible]

Basavapatna and Kerlapura in addition to the two sweepers at Ramanathapur and 10 Municipal lanterns borrowed from Arkalgud and Konanur Municipalities were also put up in convenient places. The Taluk Sanitary Inspector was entrusted with the work of sanitation and lighting.

A pendal for holding the meetings in connection with the show and five ~~specious~~ Spacious sheds for locating a veterinary dispensary, a police station and for exhibiting articles of sericulture and agriculture departments were erected in the show grounds.

Every year the prizes awarded to the best cattle were in the shape of money and this time there has been a diversion in the prizes awarded to cows and ploughing bullocks. India is an agricultural country, and cattle are the main and major part of agriculture. The cow is not only sacred to a Hindu but is also the back bone of the ~~cattle~~ Country. It was resolved by the Taluk Board to award a gold medal and a silver cup to the owner of the best cows and an english plough to the owner of the best pair of ploughing bullocks. The English plough is the gift of Mr. Mallasetti of Basavapatna who is the Chairman of the Village Panchayet Basavapatna and a gentleman of philanthorpic turn of mind.

The show was opened on the 3rd instant by Mr. N.R. Subbanniah of Nidatha, a leading and popular Coffee Planter and philanthropi and a member of the Coorg Legislative Council who ~~according to~~ [illegible] was kind enough to respond to the invitation of the District Board President to preside on the occasion. The openi ceremony commenced with a welcome to the President and other guests of the occasion and with some instructive speeches by the officers of the Sericulture, Agriculture and Veterinary Departmen Mr. N.R. Subbanniah before declaring the show open read his speech and this has been published on page No.450 Part I A of the Mysore Gazette dated 18th November 1920. This year, the realizations of the cattle show came to Rs 727 and out of this amount a sum of Rs 25 has to be allotted to the temple of Basavaswara at Ramanathapur (vide Taluk Board's resolution No. IX dated 11th Novr. 24, and District Board President's order No. Gl. 2410-24, dated 18th Novr. 24) and of the remaining Rs 702 the expenditure viz., Rs 294/9/- incurred during the cattle show has to be met with. Of the remaining Rs 407/7/- what amounts have to be apportioned to the temple of Sri Subrahmanyaswami and the Village Panchayet is to be decided by the District Board.

The meeting and the show terminated after a vote of thanks to and garlanding the President and the other guests and after proposing three cheers to our beloved Maharaja of Mysore.

Sd. T.Abdul Khadar Khan,
President. Taluk Board, Arkalgud.
